9 Night Wool Lovers Tour of Ireland

Tour Dates:

31st May 2020

Tour Overview

Introducing our 9 night Wool Lovers Knitting and Craft Tour of Ireland! The backdrop for your wool vacation will be the medieval landmark city of Kilkenny, the natural rustic beauty of The Burren with the majestic Cliffs of Moher, the wonderfully idyllic Aran Islands and the scenic splendour of County Kerry.

Your experiences will include exploring Dublin and a visit to one of our newest interactive museums at Epic The Irish Immigration Museum. After a night in Ireland's vibrant capital we begin our time in Kilkenny with an intensive knitting and felting workshop with fiber artists Anita Marnell and Helena Kelly Maye. Continue your tour of Kilkenny as we visit Zwartables Ireland Sheep Farm and Cushendale Woollen Mill. Visit three of our most historic locations en route, Kilkenny Castle, the Rock of Cashel and Blarney Castle and the Blarney Stone with time to explore the famous Blarney Woollen Mills store. In Kerry you will enjoy a class with experienced designer and teacher, Liz Spillane where you will learn how to make your own elaborate textured, coloured yarns using a variety of techniques, all in the surroundings of her delightful mountain view studios.

Explore the beauty of the Lakes of Killarney, Molls Gap and the magnificent Dingle Peninsula, visiting Kerry Woollen Mills on our travels. For the final leg of your tour journey to Doolin along the Wild Atlantic Way, where we pay a visit to the famous Cliffs of Moher, visit Irish Fibre Crafters and experience a day trip to the Aran Islands for an Aran knitting workshop with Inis Oirr native Una McDonagh.

Itinerary

Important Note: Attractions, Workshops and Demonstrations May Change According to Availability and Scheduling

Day 1: Dublin Sightseeing

Begin your knitting tour of Ireland with a transfer to your hotel (for arrivals prior to 11am on start day of tour). At 2pm visit Epic, The Irish Emigration Museum. One of Ireland's newest museums, where you can make your way through twenty themed galleries and discover why 10 million people left Ireland, how they influenced the world around them, and experience the connection between their descendants and Ireland today. If time permits we will also pay a visit to "This is Knit", an independent, family-owned yarn shop where the shelves are filled with high quality, natural-fibre yarns, from top Irish and international brands.

Overnight in Dublin, Dinner, Bed & Breakfast included

Day 2: Travel to Kilkenny, Knitting, Spinning & Dyeing Workshop with Anita Marnell and Helena Kelly Maye

Check out of your hotel and board your touring coach. Travel to Kilkenny to Anita Marnell's studio where the day starts with tea and coffee and an Introduction to varieties of fleece both raw and washed, followed by a discussion on different natural fibres which are used in yarn creation. Anita and Helena will also introduce you to carders for wool and you will learn how to comb Wool Bats and Rolags. Your time at the studio also includes some knitting techniques where the honeycomb, blackberry, diamond and cable stitch are learned, practiced and perfected. After lunch nearby (included), you will learn how to felt a flower using Merino fleece and decorating it with silks, to create a Stunning Brooch. After almost a full day at the studio, we travel onward to Kilkenny and check into your hotel. Long renowned as Ireland's Medieval Capital, the city's origins date back more than 1,500 years. Kilkenny, from the Gaelic "Cill Ceannaigh", derives its name from a 6th century monk called Saint Canice. Characterised by beautifully restored old buildings and covered slipways, Kilkenny City is small and compact enough to explore on foot, yet full of fascinating, historical buildings, and contemporary shops, design galleries, cafés and restaurants.

Overnight in Kilkenny, Dinner, Bed & Breakfast included

Day 3: Craft in Kilkenny – Cushendale Mill & Zwartables Farm

We start the day with a visit to Kilkenny Castle, a 12th century castle remodelled in Victorian times and set in extensive parklands. There will also be time to visit Kilkenny Design Centre which offers a fantastic selection of Irish handcrafted gifts including Jewellery, Knitwear, Celtic Gifts, China & Crystal, Pottery & Glass, Home & Fashion Accessories and contemporary design pieces. Next, we travel outside Kilkenny city and stop at Zwartables Ireland Sheep Farm to meet Suzanne and her family who breed and rear Zwartables Sheep. Tour the farm, meet the sheep and chat with the family who will tell you all about their unique yarn which you can buy direct from the farm if you wish. After lunch (included), your final stop for today is Cushendale Mill where products made on site are crafted using natural-fibre textiles made with mohair, Irish wool and merino lambswool. Enjoy a tour of the mill and see the spinning mule in action. You might even spot some of the wool from the sheep at Zwartables Farm! Return to Kilkenny where the remainder of the evening is free. Dinner is not included tonight so that you can sample one of Kilkenny's many fine restaurants if you wish.

Overnight in Kilkenny, Bed & Breakfast included

Day 4: Rock of Cashel & Blarney Castle and Woollen Mills Store

Today we make our way to Killarney with a few stops along the way, the first one being the Rock of Cashel in county Tipperary, the former seat of the High Kings of Munster. The location has a unique presence and is one of the most remarkable collections of Celtic art and medieval architecture to be found anywhere in Europe. Board your coach and travel to Cork and the village of Blarney. Cormac MacCarthy, a great Irish chieftain constructed Blarney Castle nearly 600 years ago and since then this remarkable fortress and its 'stone of eloquence' has been attracting thousands of curious visitors every year. Legend has it that if you kiss the stone you will never be lost for words and have, as the Irish say, 'the gift of the gab'. Built in 1823, Blarney Woollen Mills was originally known as Mahoney's Mills and provided valuable employment to the people of Blarney and nearby areas. Today Blarney Woollen Mills is Ireland's largest Irish Gift & Craft Store. Continue to Killarney and check into your hotel where dinner will be waiting for you.

Overnight in Killarney, Dinner, Bed & Breakfast included.

Day 5: Knitting Workshop with Liz Spillane & Kerry Sightseeing

After breakfast travel to Kenmare to meet knitwear designer and textile artist, Liz Spillane. Liz has over 30 years' experience teaching knitting classes and even worked as a tutor in the fashion department in the Limerick School of Art & Design. Liz has over 30 years' experience teaching knitting classes, using a single smooth yarn as a base and a variety of techniques to build the texture and colour. The yarn is then knitted with standard knitting needles. After your class we will travel to Kenmare for lunch (included) and afterwards you will have some time to explore the picturesque town at your leisure. We return to Killarney via the mountain road to Moll's Gap and Ladies View where you will be treated to unrivalled views of the Killarney Valley. With its three famous lakes and majestic mountain ranges, Killarney has been the inspiration of poets and painters over many centuries. The Killarney National Park is internationally renowned both for its scenic beauty and scientific interest.

Overnight in Killarney, Bed & Breakfast included

Day 6: Kerry Woollen Mills & Dingle

After breakfast travel to Dingle, visiting Kerry Woollen Mills along the way. This 17th century establishment has been crafting fine fabrics and yarn from wool for over 300 years and on your tour you will see truly skilled craftspeople at work. Continue to Dingle where after a few hours to explore the town and have lunch at your leisure we will explore the peninsula. The peninsula itself is ringed by sandy beaches and craggy cliffs and inland you will find rolling hills and mountains, including Mount Brandon which towers overhead at over more than 3000 feet. Return to Killarney where the remainder of the evening is free for your personal sightseeing or shopping.

Overnight in Killarney, Bed & Breakfast included

Day 7: Travel to Doolin via Adare & Visit the Cliffs of Moher and Irish Fibre Crafters

After breakfast board your touring coach and travel to Adare in County Limerick. Situated in the south west of Ireland, Adare is one of Ireland's prettiest and most picturesque villages and is a haven for those wishing to escape and unwind, taking in its medieval surroundings. After some free time to explore the village and attractions continue to Doolin where we visit the dramatic Cliffs of Moher! Doolin is one of the most famous towns in Ireland for listening to good traditional Irish music and you couldn't get a better selection of musicians than in Gus O'Connor's Pub, first established in 1832, there's something marvellously atmospheric about this place which lures visitors into a long and lingering visit.

Following your visit, you will have the option to visit Irish Fibre Crafters, a working spinning, weaving and crafting centre where they use sustainable natural fibres, particularly Irish wool and Irish alpaca. Watch the artists at work and explore their displays, showcasing the best of Irish wool and fleece.

Overnight in the Burren Area, Dinner, Bed & Breakfast Included

Day 8: Day trip to the Aran Islands

Depart your hotel in time to get the early morning ferry to Inis Oirr (Inisheer), one of the famous Aran Islands located at the mouth of Galway Bay off the west coast of Ireland. On arrival you will be collected by your Aran Island Knitting Instructor Una McDonagh and taken to the Café Una where you will be welcomed with tea, coffee and scones. Enjoy a Knitting Workshop where you will learn traditional methods and stitches the Aran Island way. In your class you will learn the Sharry Chain Link Stitch. The Sharry family, like many of the island families, has a long-standing connection with the sea and the women of the family celebrate that connection in their choice of stitches when they knit traditional Aran sweaters. After some time to enjoy the Art Exhibition at the centre, take a guided tour of the Island. This evening board the return ferry back to the mainland and return to your hotel.

Overnight in the Burren Area, Dinner, Bed & Breakfast Included

Day 9: Return to Dublin via Irish Fibre Crafters & Tullamore D.E.W. Heritage Centre

Check out of your hotel and there will be an opportunity to visit the Irish Fibre Crafters which is a working studio and small shop located in the village square of Ardrahan, County Galway. They love to spin, weave, felt, knit, crochet and embroider where all sorts of wonderful items and art are produced with sustainable natural fibres, particularly Irish wool and Irish alpaca. As you continue back to Dublin via Tullamore D.E.W. Heritage Centre where you will discover how Daniel E. Williams went from stable boy to distillery manager to creating the whiskey which still bears his initials today. After sampling some of this fine whiskey, continue to Dublin where the afternoon is free for your personal sightseeing or shopping. This evening meet back at the hotel and we will travel together to a local restaurant for a final farewell dinner in a local Dublin restaurant.

Overnight in Dublin, Bed & Breakfast included.

Day 10: Tour Ends.

After your final Irish breakfast depart the hotel for Dublin airport arriving in time to complete check-in formalities and that last-minute duty free shopping.
