

9 Night Wool Lovers Tour of Ireland 2021

Tour Dates:

6th June 2021

(One Date Only, Limited Availability)

Tour Overview

For this 9 night knitting and craft tour, the focus of your itinerary will be historic Kilkenny, the Burren area in County Clare including the Cliffs of Moher and the Aran Islands and scenic Killarney in County Kerry. Your exploits will include a panoramic tour of Dublin where you will pay a visit to Epic Ireland, one of Dublin's newest museums. The next day we travel to Kilkenny and meet Anita Marnell and Helena Kelly Maye for an intensive knitting and felting workshop. Your touring in Kilkenny does not end there however as we will also visit Zwartbles Ireland Sheep Farm and Cushendale Woollen Mill. Continuing to Killarney you will visit two historic castles on route, the impressive Rock of Cashel and the famous Blarney Castle & Woollen Mills store. In Kerry we undertake another knitting workshop, this time with experienced designer and teacher, Liz Spillane. Liz will teach you how to make your own fancy / textured yarns and a variety of techniques to build texture and colour. Before you leave Kerry, we will explore the Lakes of Killarney, Molls Gap and the magnificent Dingle Peninsula, visiting Kerry Woollen Mills along the way. For the final leg of your tour we travel to Doolin where we pay a visit to the famous Cliffs of Moher, visit Irish Fibre Crafters and take a day trip to the Aran Islands for a knitting workshop with Una McDonagh.

Itinerary

Important Note: Attractions, Workshops and Demonstrations May Change According to Availability and Scheduling

Day 1: Dublin Sightseeing

Begin your knitting tour of Ireland with a transfer to your hotel (for arrivals prior to 10:30am on start day of tour). At 2pm visit Epic, The Irish Emigration Museum. One of Ireland's newest museums, you can make your way through twenty themed galleries and find out why people left Ireland, how they influenced the world around them and experience the connection between their descendants and Ireland today. If time permits we will also pay a visit to "This is Knit", an independent, family-owned yarn shop where the shelves are filled with high quality, natural-fibre yarns, from top Irish and international brands.

Overnight in Camden Court Hotel, Dublin, Dinner, Bed & Breakfast included

Day 2: Travel to Kilkenny, Knitting, Spinning & Dyeing Workshop with Anita Marnell and Helena Kelly Maye

Check out of your hotel and board your touring coach. Travel to Highbank Orchard, Kilkenny and meet Anita Marnell and Helena Kelly Maye where the day starts with tea and coffee and an introduction to your activities. Anita will show you different fleeces, both raw and washed, along with other natural fibres which are used in yarns. Your day at the studio also includes some knitting techniques with Helena where the honeycomb, blackberry, diamond and cable stitch can be learned, practiced and perfected. This afternoon, you will learn how to felt a flower using Merino fleece and decorating it with silks, to create a Stunning Brooch. After almost a full day at the studio, we travel onward to Kilkenny and check into your hotel. Long renowned as Ireland's Medieval Capital, the city's origins date back more than 1,500 years. Kilkenny, from the Gaelic "Cill Ceannaigh", derives its name from a 6th century monk called Saint Canice. Characterised by beautifully restored old buildings and covered slipways, Kilkenny City is small and compact enough to explore on foot, yet full of fascinating, historical buildings, and contemporary shops, design galleries, cafés and restaurants.

Overnight River Court Hotel, Kilkenny, Dinner, Bed & Breakfast included

Day 3: Craft in Kilkenny – Cushendale Mill & Zwartbles Ireland Sheep Farm

We start the day with a visit to Kilkenny Castle, a 12th century castle remodelled in Victorian times and set in extensive parklands. There will also be time to visit Kilkenny Design Centre which offers a fantastic selection of Irish handcrafted gifts including Jewellery, Knitwear, Celtic Gifts, China & Crystal, Pottery & Glass, Home & Fashion Accessories and contemporary design pieces. Next, we travel outside Kilkenny city and stop at Zwartbles Ireland Sheep Farm to meet Suzanne and her family who breed and rear Zwartbles Sheep. Tour the farm, meet the sheep and chat with the family who will tell you all about their unique yarn which you can buy direct from the farm if you wish. Your final stop for today is Cushendale Mill where products made on site are crafted using natural-fibre textiles made with mohair, Irish wool and merino lambswool. Enjoy a tour of the mill and see the spinning mule in action. You might even spot some of the wool from the sheep at Crampton farm! Return to Kilkenny where the remainder of the evening is free. Dinner is not included tonight so you can sample one of Kilkenny's many fine restaurants if you wish.

Overnight River Court Hotel, Kilkenny, Bed & Breakfast included

Day 4: Rock of Cashel & Blarney Castle and Woollen Mills Store

Today we make our way to Killarney with a few stops along the way, the first one being the Rock of Cashel in county Tipperary. The Rock of Cashel, one of Ireland's most visited heritage sites, is a collection of medieval ecclesiastical buildings set on an outcrop of limestone in the Golden Vale. Next, board your coach and travel to Cork and the village of Blarney. Cormac MacCarthy, a great Irish chieftain constructed Blarney Castle nearly 600 years ago and since then this remarkable fortress and its 'stone of eloquence' has been attracting thousands of curious visitors every year. Legend has it that if you kiss the stone you will never be lost for words and have, as the Irish say, 'the gift of the gab'. Built in 1823, Blarney Woollen Mills was originally known as Mahoney's Mills and provided valuable employment to the people of Blarney and nearby areas. Today Blarney Woollen Mills is Ireland's largest Irish Gift & Craft Store. Continue to Killarney and check into your hotel where dinner will be waiting for you.

Overnight Lake Hotel, Killarney, Dinner, Bed & Breakfast included.

Day 5: Knitting Workshop with Liz Spillane & Kerry Sightseeing

After breakfast travel to Kenmare to meet knitwear designer and textile artist, Liz Spillane. Liz has over 30 years' experience teaching knitting classes and even worked as a tutor in the fashion department in the Limerick School of Art & Design. Your workshop with Liz will include creating fancy / textured yarns, using a single smooth yarn as a base and a variety of techniques to build the texture and colour. The yarn is then knitted with standard knitting needles. After your class we will travel to Kenmare where you will have some time to explore. We return to Killarney via the mountain road to Moll's Gap and Ladies View where you will be treated to unrivalled views of the Killarney Valley. With its three famous lakes and majestic mountain ranges, Killarney has been the inspiration of poets and painters over many centuries. Killarney National Park is internationally renowned both for its scenic beauty and scientific interest.

Overnight Lake Hotel, Killarney, Bed & Breakfast included

Day 6: Kerry Woollen Mills & Dingle

After breakfast travel to Dingle, visiting Kerry Woollen Mills along the way. This 17th century establishment has been crafting fine fabrics and yarn from wool for over 300 years and on your tour you will see truly skilled craftspeople at work. Continue to Dingle where after a few hours to explore the town and have lunch at your leisure we will explore the peninsula. The peninsula itself is ringed by sandy beaches and craggy cliffs and inland you will find rolling hills and mountains, including the 952m Mount Brandon which towers overhead. Return to Killarney where the remainder of the evening is free for personal sightseeing or shopping.

Overnight Lake Hotel Killarney, Bed & Breakfast included

Day 7: Travel to Doolin via Adare & Visit the Cliffs of Moher

After breakfast board your touring coach and travel to Adare in County Limerick. Situated in the south west of Ireland, Adare is one of Ireland's prettiest and most picturesque villages and is a haven for those wishing to escape and unwind, taking in its charming surroundings. After some free time to explore the village, continue onwards to the dramatic Cliffs of Moher, which rise to 214 meters (702 ft) above the churning Atlantic swells. Following your visit, you will have the option to enjoy some free time in the village of Doolin, the traditional music capital of Ireland, which is a hub for art and craft with shops and cafes displaying some of the finest locally inspired artwork, woodwork, jewellery, souvenirs and more.

Overnight Lahinch Golf & Leisure Hotel, County Clare, Dinner, Bed & Breakfast Included

Day 8: Day trip to the Aran Islands

Depart your hotel in time to get the early morning ferry to Inis Oirr (Inisheer), one of the famous Aran Islands located at the mouth of Galway Bay off the west coast of Ireland. On arrival you will be collected by your Aran Island Knitting Instructor Una McDonagh and taken to the Café Una where you will be welcomed with tea or coffee and scones. Enjoy a Knitting Workshop where you will learn traditional methods and stitches the Aran Island way. In your class you will learn the Sharry Chain Link Stitch. The Sharry family, like many of the island families, has a long-standing connection with the sea and the women of the family celebrate that connection in their choice of stitches when they knit traditional Aran sweaters. After some time to enjoy the Art Exhibition at the centre, take a guided tour of the Island. This evening take the return ferry back to the mainland and return to your hotel.

Overnight Lahinch Golf & Leisure Hotel, County Clare, Dinner, Bed & Breakfast Included

Day 9: Return to Dublin via Irish Fibre Crafters and Tullamore D.E.W. Heritage Centre

Check out of your hotel and make your way back to Dublin via Irish Fibre Crafters and Tullamore D.E.W. Heritage Centre where you will discover how Daniel E. Williams went from stable boy to distillery manager to creating the whiskey which still bears his initials today. After sampling some of this fine whiskey, continue to Dublin where the afternoon is free for your personal sightseeing or shopping. This evening meet back at the hotel and we will travel together to a local restaurant for a final farewell dinner in a local Dublin restaurant.

Overnight Camden Court Hotel, Dublin, Dinner, Bed & Breakfast included

Day 10: Tour Ends.

After your final Irish breakfast depart the hotel for Dublin airport arriving in time to complete check-in formalities and that last-minute duty free shopping.
