Meet with your guide and group for an introduction and embark on your first part of the tour with a visit to the National Museum of Decorative Arts and History. Discover how Irish people lived in the past as you wander the recreated rooms showing typical furniture styles from the 17th century right through to high styles of the 19th century. The textile exhibition may be of special interest where 'The Way We Wore' section displays typical Irish clothing and jewellery from 1760s onwards. Our next stop is at Christ Church Cathedral for a guided tour of one of Dublin's oldest operational buildings – over 1000 years old! The remainder of the day will be free for you to relax and refresh before your welcome dinner at your hotel.

Day 2: Knitting with Wire Workshop with Pauline Gallagher and the Constant Knitter

Pauline Gallagher will join you in your hotel for the first workshop of your tour: Knitting With Wire. First you will discover the connection between knitted wire and Ireland's cultural treasures then you will be initiated in the techniques of wire knitting. You will have the joy of creating 'Irish Rain,' a delicate leaf pendant with a crystal drop, a reminder of our soft Irish rain, to take home with you as a souvenir of your time here in Ireland! Next, we pay a visit to the Constant Knitter where you will meet with a local craftsperson for an informal talk and demonstration on their specific craft topic. This will either be on knitwear design or Irish lace crochet depending on the designer. After lunch (included), we travel on to the 'City of Tribes' – Galway to check-in at your hotel.

Day 3: Connemara Craft and Kylemore Abbey

After a hearty breakfast, we travel out to Connemara, one of the most beautiful and un-spoilt landscapes in the west of Ireland. We visit Spiddal Craft & Design Centre where you will be met by Ciarán Hogan. Ciarán will demonstrate traditional Irish willow basket weaving techniques and also introduce you to some modern basket designs. There will also be other local crafts people at the centre including traditional hand weaver, Máire Ní Thaidhg. Today we walk a short distance for a knitting workshop with one of Ireland's best known Aran knitters and designers - Mrs Anne Ó'Máille of Ó'Máilles of Galway. This shop was established in the 1938 but became well known because in 1951, the film 'The Quiet Man' was filmed at Ashford Castle and many of the costumes were tailored by the Ó'Máille family. The shop now stocks Irish tweeds, knitwear and Aran Knits. Soak up the atmosphere of this vibrant city, shop or check out the pubs and restaurants, all which make Galway such a popular destination.

Day 5: Inis Óírr, Aran Islands

This morning we travel west to catch a ferry to Inis Óírr, the smallest of the Aran Islands located in Galway Bay. Úna MacDonagh, your Aran Island knitting instructor will meet you at Café Úna where you will receive a warm, Irish welcome with tea/coffee and homemade scones. Una will instruct on traditional methods and stitches of the Aran Island such as the Sharry Chain Link Stitch. The Sharry family were an Island family whose connections to the sea are evident in their choice of stitches used in knitting traditional Aran sweaters. During your time with Una, you will learn about historical Aran clothing, from the traditional Aran Sweater which we all know and love to the lesser known Crios woven belt & the heavy woollen shawls which were once commonplace.
